Women's Circle Bible Study

September 7 - November 30, 2010

Tuesday Evenings 7:15-8:30pm in Manning Hall.

We will explore the stories of some "women of questionable virtue" in the Bible. We will read Scripture as a group, placing the characters in scriptural, historical, and social context. We will look into the traditional interpretation of their roles and try to discover what message they have for women of the 21st century.

- * Feel free to attend as often as you would like
- * Dress comfortably
- * BYOM: Bring Your Own Mug for yummy herbal tea
- * Led by The Rev. Licia Affer

Materials: Barbara J. Essex, Bad Girls of the Bible: Exploring Women of Questionable Virtue (1999) The Pilgrim Press, Cleveland, OH; The Bible: New Revised Standard Version; a notebook or journal for personal meditation.

Book Discussion Group

On Wednesday, September 8 the group begins it's 26th season by talking about the NY Times Bestseller, Wait Till Next Year, historian Doris Kearns Goodwin's memoir of growing up in 1950's America—surely the epitome of baseball, motherhood, and apple pie. On October 6, our discussion will be on The Promise of Paradox by Parker Palmer. You are cordially invited to join us at these meetings which take place at 7:30pm in the Urbano Library. For more information or the full list of this year's titles, contact Sue Kapp at 623-847-1882.
